HIGHLIGHTS AND THE WEEK AHEAD

Polk Street Bulletin
Week of January 8, 2018

Dear Polk Street Parents,

Interested in cleaning up the house and performing some community service? On January 19th, our Compact Committee will run our annual Book Swap. If you have some books that your children have outgrown we'd love to put them in the hands of another during our book swap. Our 5th grade Little Doctors program will begin to sign up donors in the coming days. Be mindful that every pint of blood that we donate has the potential of impacting and even saving 3 lives.

Here's to a great week,

Gil Torossian and John Trotta
